

Photo Gallery: Dedication of new library auditorium

Prescott Daily Courier Originally Published: March 3, 2010 11:39 a.m.

Councilmembers, town personnel and interested members of the community gathered on Thursday, Feb. 25, 2010 to dedicate the new 200-seat auditorium in Prescott Valley's recently completed library. The audience heard an introduction from Vice Mayor Lora Lee Nye, music from Susan Stewart, the Bradshaw Mountain High School Select Choir, and the High Mountain Chordsmen, and a dedication by Mayor Harvey Skoog. After the ceremony and refreshments, the council met for the first time in the auditorium, which will be permanent council chambers. Heidi Dahms Foster shot these photos.